St. James's June 24.

THE following Addreſſes having been tranſmitted by Robert Hunter, Eſq; Governour of New-York and New-Jerſey, were preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Eſq; one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An humble Addreſs of the Grand-Jury for the City and County of New-York in America, aſſembled at the Supream Court of Judicature held in the ſaid City on the 13th Day of October 1714.

An humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriff and Grand Jurors of the City and County of New-York at Quarter Seſſions held for the ſaid City and County in America.

An humble Addreſs of the Governour and Council of the Province of New-York in America.

An humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Aſſiſtants of the City of New-York in the Province of New-York in America, conven'd in Common Council.

Which Addreſſes his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

At the Court at St. James's, June 17, 1715.

His Majeſty having been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable Richard Earl of Burlington, Lord Lieutenant of the Eaſt-Riding of the County of York; his Lordſhip this Day took the Oaths appointed to be taken inſtead of the Oaths of Allegiance and Supremacy.

This Day by his Majeſty's Command Daniel Harvey, Eſq; Lieutenant-General of his Majeſty's Forces, was Sworn Governor of his Majeſty's Iſland of Guernſey.

This Day James Vernon, Jun. Eſq; was Sworn one of the Clerks of his Majeſty's moſt Honourable Privy-Council in Ordinary.

St. James's, June 21. This Day Patents paſſed the Great Seal appointing the Right Honourable Richard Earl of Burlington Cuſtos Rotulorum for the North-Riding in the County of York. As alſo

For the Weſt-Riding in the ſaid County.

St. James's, June 23. This Day the Marquiſs Rinuccini, Envoy Extraordinary from the Grand Duke of Tuſcany, had a private Audience of Leave of his Majeſty; to which he was introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Townſhend, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies.

He was afterwards conducted to their Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Wales, by the Maſter of the Ceremonies.

His Majeſty has been pleaſed to appoint the Right Honourable Richard Earl of Burlington to be High Treaſurer of the Kingdom of Ireland.

Barcelona June 8. The Negotiations for an Accommodation with the People of Majorca having not been brought to a good Concluſion, an extraordinary Courier arrived here the 4th Inſtant from Madrid, with Orders for the Fleet to Sail on the Expedition ſo long intended againſt that Iſland; and 'tis believed it will put to Sea on the 11th or 12th. It conſiſts of 300 Sail, including the Men of War and the 6 Gallies of Spain. 12 Battallions of French, 12 of Spaniards, and 1000 Horſes, with Gunners, Bombardiers and Miners are imbarking; and will be followed by 20 other Battallions, half French half Spaniards: All theſe Forces are commanded in chief by Lieutenant-General Hasfeld. The Majorcans have made all poſſible Diſpoſitions for their Defence, having placed Cannon on Redoubts and Intrenchments thrown up at thoſe Parts of the Iſland which are of eaſieſt acceſs for landing a number of Men. They are reported to have 800 Horſe or Dragoons of regular Troops, with ſome regular Foot, and to have armed all their Militia.

Venice, June 14. 'Tis adviſed from Naples, that the Launceſton a Britiſh Man of War, Captain Pooley Commander, which lately came thither from Port-Mahon to lade Proviſions, is ſailed again for Minorca; as alſo that the Blake Galley was ſailed for Alicant, the Sultan for Tunis, and the Amelia for London. We have an Account from Rome, that General Marſilii had been ordered by the Pope to retire to Bologna, and to confine himſelf to his own Houſe there till his Holineſs's further Pleaſure be ſignified to him. That General was intruſted with the Diſtribution and Command of the Troops ſent to Sinigaglia, and other Places on the Coaſt, for oppoſing the Corſairs who might attempt to land, as they lately did near Loretto: But going to Ancona, he happened to have a great Conteſt with Monſignor Stampa the Governour, who is a Prelate of a noble Family of Milan; high Words and mutual Threats paſſed between them; and the Pope being informed of the whole Diſpute, has diſgraced the General. Laſt Night died at Padoua the Procurator Giuſtiniani, who was formerly Bailo from this Republick at Conſtantinople; to morrow the Senate will proceed to the Choice of a Procurator in his room.

Francfort, June 20. Letters from Swiſſerland of the 16th Inſtant adviſe, that the Count du Luc had notified to the Canton of Berne, the Renewal of the Alliance between the King of France and the Roman Catholick Cantons, offering to communicate the Treaty to the Regents of Berne by one of his Secretaries if they deſired it, and adding that the King his Maſter had very much at Heart the ſeeing Peace and Tranquility re-eſtabliſhed in Swiſſerland. The Regents of Berne returned Anſwer in very obliging Terms to the Count's Notification and Offer, adding that ſince the Roman Catholick Cantons had thought fit to renew their Alliance with France, without communicating any thing of it to the Proteſtant Cantons, the latter did not concern themſelves much about it; that however, if the Count was diſpoſed to let them the ſaid Regents of Berne ſee it, they deſired to have it in Writing, to the End they might communicate it to the other Proteſtant Cantons; they concluded by expreſſing ſome Surprize at the Care and Concern his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty is under for the Re-eſtabliſhment of the Peace and Tranquility of Swiſſerland; ſince they have been ſome Years ſettled by the Peace concluded between the Parties who were at Variance, to the Articles of which Peace they the ſaid Regents of Berne were determined to adhere inviolably. 'Tis adviſed from Geneva, that the King and Queen of Sicily were ſuddenly expected at Thonon, a ſmall Town in the Chablais on the Side of the Lake of Geneva, there to reſide for the Benefit of the Air during the Summer Heats.

Ratisbon, June 24. The Count du Luc, Ambaſſadour of the French King in Swiſſerland, is expected here in a few Days, in his Way to Vienna. The Count de Gergy, appointed to reſide here as Plenipotentiary of France, will not come till the End of next Month. M. Fuchs, Brother-in-Law to the Biſhop of Wurtzbourg, and to Count Mollard at Vienna, is deſigned to be the Imperial Commiſſary in the Circle of Lower Saxony, in the room of Count Schonborn, who is made a Cardinal.

Paris, June 29. The Prince de Cellamare, Ambaſſadour Extraordinary from the King of Spain, arrived here on the 19th Inſtant; and on the 22d he went to Marly, where he had a private Audience of the King. He preſented to his Majeſty the Marquis de Miraval, who came with him from Madrid, and is to proceed to the Hague in the Quality of Ambaſſadour of Spain to the States General.

Hague, June 28. The States of the Province of Holland and Weſtfriſeland met again on the 25th Inſtant, and having diſpatched ſeveral Affairs that lay before them, will ('tis ſaid) end their Seſſion to Morrow. The Reform of the Forces of this State, is voted by the Pro-
